5. WHO WE DISCLOSE YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION TO

Brisbane Powerhouse may disclose your personal information to:

- third parties in connection with the items listed under the 'Purposes for which we collect your personal information' section above;
- our professional advisers (e.g., lawyers, accountants and consultants);
- to a buyer or other successor in interest of our business and to their professional advisors and proposed and actual financiers as part of a sale of all or part of our business; and
- otherwise as required or permitted by law, including to comply with lawful information requests from government and law enforcement agencies or with an order of a court.

Some of the third parties we disclose personal information to may be based in or have servers located outside of Australia - the countries in which those parties are likely to be located include the United States of America, Canada and Germany. Where we disclose your personal information to third parties overseas, we will take reasonable steps to ensure that data security and appropriate privacy practices are maintained. These overseas recipients will often be subject to obligations to protect the personal information they have access to, but they may not meet specific requirements of Australian privacy laws, and where you agree to this Privacy Policy you consent to the disclosure and acknowledge that you may not have rights against us or them under Australian privacy laws if they mishandle your personal information.

6. THE ACCURACY OF YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

Brisbane Powerhouse takes reasonable precautions to ensure that the personal information we collect and use is accurate, complete and up to date. However, the accuracy of this information depends to a large extent on the information you provide us. As such, we encourage you to contact us should your personal information be incorrect or require updating. Our privacy policy sets out how to contact us if you would like to correct any of your personal information held by Brisbane Powerhouse.

7. ACCESSING YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

You have the right to access your personal information subject to some exceptions under Australian law. Our privacy policy sets out how you can access any of your personal information held by Brisbane Powerhouse.

8. HOW TO MAKE A COMPLAINT

Our privacy policy sets out how you can make a complaint about the management of the Australian Privacy Principles by Brisbane Powerhouse or report a breach of privacy and how we will deal with any such complaint.

RESPONSIBILITIES

Brisbane Powerhouse board and management recognise risk management is everyone's business, however, it is also recognised that responsibility for driving a strong risk management culture throughout an organisation requires management focus. The Brisbane Powerhouse board is responsible for the oversight of the organisation's approach to risk management. This includes the need for the board to satisfy itself that:

- Management has a framework in place for managing risk that is suitable for the size, business objectives and overall complexity of Brisbane Powerhouse's operations.
- The risk appetite of the organisation has been appropriately set and has been communicated to all levels of management responsible for assessment of material risks.

Brisbane Powerhouse Finance, Audit and Risk Management (FARM) Committee is responsible for coordinating the board's approach to risk oversight and ensuring management's assumptions, assertions and regular reporting are sufficiently challenged and verified including via:

- Regular review of the Board Charter and the charters of board subcommittees to ensure all key categories of risk are being addressed;
- Engaging management on the extent and format of risk information to be provided to FARM and the board; and
- FARM and board processes to allow access to management for the purposes of challenging and verifying key assumptions and assertions.

The CEO/Artistic Director has ultimate responsibility for the implementation of the Risk Management Policy and is accountable to the board. The CEO/Artistic Director is also responsible for actively pursuing a risk management culture where staff appreciate that the management of risk is not just about compliance and that risks are proactively assessed and reported, and effective risk treatment strategies implemented.

The Leadership team is responsible for identifying and prioritising material business risks and reporting on those risks to the CEO/Artistic Director and board. It is also responsible for implementation of the Risk Management Policy within the business units.

The Risk Owner is a nominated individual responsible for:

- overseeing the effective and timely management of a specific risk
- selecting appropriate risk treatment strategies to address a specific risk
- continual monitoring and reporting of a specific risk confirming mitigating controls are operating effectively and adequately address the risk exposure.

Individual Staff are responsible for assisting in the identification and management of material risks to the organisation and to operate in a safe manner.
